17.3.17 JUSTICE, PEACE AND STRONG INSTITUTIONS

The Tiranga Run organized by the institution in association with Madukkarai Military Camp (35 Field Regiment) promotes patriotism, national unity, social harmony and responsible citizenship. The event recognized the dedication of the Indian Armed Forces in safeguarding national security and sovereignty while instilling values of discipline, mutual respect and collective responsibility among students and faculty members. It contributed to creating awareness about the importance of peaceful coexistence and strong national institutions.

The Institution in association with the Madukkarai Military Camp (35 Field Regiment), organized a Tiranga Run on the dawn of 14 August 2025 as part of the 79th Independence Day celebrations under the Government of India's Har Ghar Tiranga initiative. The event was organized with the objective of instilling patriotism, promoting national unity and creating awareness about the significance of the Indian National Flag among students and the wider college community. The programme witnessed enthusiastic participation from army personnel and faculty members, who came together to celebrate the spirit of freedom, sacrifice and national pride.

The Tiranga Run commenced in an atmosphere filled with patriotic enthusiasm, with participants carrying the Indian Tricolour and proudly displaying their respect and devotion towards the nation. The presence of army personnel added special significance to the occasion, providing an opportunity to acknowledge the dedication, discipline and selfless service of the Indian Armed Forces in safeguarding the nation's sovereignty and security. The event symbolized the strong bond between the armed forces and the civilian community while reinforcing the values of unity, courage, discipline and collective responsibility.

The celebration served as a meaningful platform to commemorate the sacrifices of freedom fighters and honour the contributions of soldiers who continue to protect the nation. It also encouraged participants to uphold the ideals of freedom, equality, brotherhood and national integrity. Through this initiative, the institution reaffirmed its commitment to nurturing responsible citizens with a strong sense of patriotism and social responsibility.
