

CLUB Activity

The Robotics club of Mechatronics Engineering Department organized extended hour training on 'Basics of Microcontrollers'. Students from various departments participated in the training actively.

As a part of the Robotics Club activity, student teams from the Department of Mechatronics Engineering actively involved in designing and developing a mobile robot in preparation for the upcoming ROBOCON event.

