- d. Adjusting the machine tools and ensuring that they are kept clean after students complete their exercises.
- e. Coaching students in the handling of hand tools involved in carpentry work and assisting them in learning simple carpentry tasks.

- f. "Providing coaching to students in fitting and welding activities, as well as in plumbing works.
- g. Demonstrating the steps involved in foundry and smithy related activities to the students as per the instruction of faculty in charge of practical class.
- h. Monitor the students to ensure they handle tools safely and securely.

Electrical and Electronics Laboratories

- a. To assist the faculty in charge of laboratory practical classes for the effective and orderly conduct of practical courses.
- b. To ensure whether all the equipment and machineries are in proper working condition before the commencement of practical classes.
- c. To ensure the safety of the students during Practical classes carefully by following the safety instructions.
- d. To issue the required meters, instruments, components etc., to the students during practical classes and receiving the same back after completion of experiment.
- e. To help the students in the circuit debugging measurement observation, etc., in regular lab classes.
- f. To help the students in the fabrication of working models, as a part of their project work.

Computer Laboratories

- a. Regular maintenance of all computer systems, UPS and other peripherals related to laboratory.
- b. Assisting the faculty in charge of practical classes, particularly concerning hardware and system software problems.
- c. If a system is within the warranty period or covered by maintenance contract and develops defects, contact the technical staff from the concerned company for rectifying the issues.
- d. Maintenance of all computing and networking facilities in the campus
- e. Creation and maintenance of login for faculty and students.
- f. Regular maintenance of LCD projector in the class room, conference hall, seminar hall, etc., as and when needed.
- g. Loading specific software and upgrading of system as and when required.
- h. Switching off the systems and air conditioners when not in use.

Assisting Research Scholars

- a. When Ph.D. researchers require experimental setups, the technical staff should assist the research scholar with the approval of the laboratory in charge and the Head of the Department (HOD).

- b. The technical staff shall assist the researcher in taking readings/measurements and in the operation of the gadget.
- c. As an institution, emphasis will be placed on sponsored research projects and consultancy. Given that many research projects involve experiments and testing, the technical staff of the laboratory should extend cooperation and assistance to the project coordinator and project associates in their endeavors.
- d. Even if the work involves beyond the working hours of the institution, technical staff will have to render assistance to the project coordinators.

Repair, Maintenance and Calibration Policy

The institution may receive requests for testing components, materials, etc., for certification from different sources. While conducting tests, alongside the faculty member, the technical staff should exercise utmost precaution in preparing samples and be meticulous in testing to ensure credibility in the certification process."

Practical Examination

The duties and responsibilities during practical examination are as follows:

- a. Issue of instruments and other equipment to the students as per the instruction of examiners appointed for the purpose.
- b. Avoid disclosing any confidential information to students regarding the content and scope of practical tests

- d. Checking all the equipment, machinery and tools for any defect and rectify the same so that the students do not face any difficulty during the examination.

Workload

- a. A full-time technical staff should perform a minimum of 34 hours of work per week for the Institution on a 6-day week basis.
- b. The institution reserves the right to determine the working hours and days based on exigencies.
- c. 34 hours is only the minimum, but a technical staff is expected to devote more time to help faculty in connection with the execution of sponsored projects, consultancy work, continuing education, summer courses, etc.,

- d. It is quite likely in some semesters, there may not be much work in a particular laboratory. Therefore, the HoD concerned will redeploy the technical staff depending on the need so that the workload is even among the staff of the department.

Cleanliness and Maintenance

With regard to cleanliness and maintenance, the duties and responsibilities of technical staff include

1. Ensuring that the assigned laboratory/workshop is kept clean and neat.
2. All equipment/machinery should be maintained to ensure they are in good working condition. In the event of any fault/defect, it should be promptly reported to the faculty in charge of the laboratory, and immediate action should be taken to rectify the defects.
3. The Technical Staff should ensure that the garbage accumulated in the laboratory or in the vicinity outside the laboratory are cleared by the cleaning staff of the Institution.
4. All safety items, such as fire extinguishers, should be maintained in working condition. Additionally, first aid materials should be kept in the box for use in case of an emergency.
5. Many equipment/measuring devices require periodic calibration. It is the responsibility of the technical staff to conduct recalibration with the assistance of the faculty in charge or by engaging outside agencies, wherever necessary and with the approval of the Head of the Department (HoD).
6. Maintenance and exhibition of charts and other learning materials of the laboratory as per the instructions of the laboratory in charge is also the responsibility of technical staff.
7. The technical staff should bring it to the notice of faculty in charges about unserviceable items and items to be condemned. He/she should also help them in taking action to dispose them.
8. All machinery and equipment are to be cleaned regularly by the respective technical staff.

UGC Regulation for Faculty Workload

1. The working hours of the teachers in full employment should not be less than 40 hours a week for 30 working weeks (180 teaching days) in an academic year.
2. It is necessary for the teachers to be available for at least 7 hours daily in the University/ College as follows:

- At least 2 hours for mentoring of students (minimum 15 students per coordinator) for Community Development/ Extracurricular Activities/ Library Consultation in case of undergraduate courses.
 - At least 2 hours for research in case of postgraduate courses, for which necessary space and infrastructure should be provided by the University/College.
3. The minimum direct teaching-learning process hours should be as follows
- Assistant Professor - 16 hours
 - Associate Professor and Professor - 14 hours
4. A relaxation of 2 hours in the workload may be given to Professors, Associate Professors who are actively involved in extension activities, administration.

Note

In accordance with Tamil Nadu Government (TCE) calculations, an additional 1 hour may be allocated if the total number of teaching hours for the department is divisible by 16 hours. In the case of a shortage of less than 16 hours, this deficit can be apportioned among the existing faculty. For example, if the workload is 86 hours and divided by 16, the faculty required is 5 with a surplus of 6 hours. These surplus hours can be apportioned among the existing faculty workload, resulting in an increased workload of 17 to 18 hours.

The following are the workload calculation

Designation	Assistant Professor	Associate Professor	HoD
Teaching, Tutorial / Lab	16	14	12
Mentoring of students	2	2	2
Departmental administration work	2	4	4
Research	2	2	2
College administration work	4	4	10
Preparation for class, guidance of project and other academic activities	10	10	10

The above is the model workload calculated as per UGC guidelines. The Ministry of Human Resource Development (MHRD) has reviewed the recent amendment to the UGC (Minimum Qualifications for appointment of teachers and other academic staff in universities and colleges and measures for the maintenance of standards in higher education) Regulations, 2010.

Consequent on the review, the Ministry has issued a direction to UGC, under Section 20(1) of the UGC Act, 1956, to undertake amendments in the Regulation. After these amendments are carried out, the position regarding workload will be as follows: -

In the UGC (Minimum Qualifications for appointment of teachers and other academic staff in universities and colleges and measures for the maintenance of standards in higher education) Regulations, 2010, the overall workload of Assistant Professors and Associate Professors/Professors in full employment was prescribed to be not less than 40 hours a week for 180 teaching days. This workload remains unchanged, even with the amended Regulation.

The direct teaching-learning hours to be devoted by Assistant Professors (16 hours) and Associate Professors/Professors (14 hours) too will remain unchanged, as a consequence of the direction from the MHRD and subsequent notification by the UGC.

In consonance with established academic and teaching traditions, and with a view to reinforcing a student-centric and caring approach, teachers are encouraged to work with students, beyond the structure of classroom teaching. Indicatively, this could entail mentoring, guiding and counselling students. In particular, teachers would be the best placed to identify and address the needs of students who may be differently-abled, or require assistance to improve their academic performance, or to overcome a disadvantage. There are no prescribed hours for such efforts, measured either in weeks or months. While they will not be included in the calculation of the API scores, these are nevertheless important and significant activities that could be carried out by teachers.

Teachers are required to allocate an additional 6 hours per week beyond the direct teaching-learning hours for research. These hours can also be utilized for tutorials, remedial classes, seminars, administrative responsibilities, and the innovation and updating of course contents.

After the amendments, there will be no increase in the workload of teachers compared to the workload prescribed earlier. Before the commencement of classes each year, the College is required to prepare the workload of the departments in an Excel sheet based on the workload and the number of faculty required in various designations. The Principal of the College is responsible for maintaining the overall workload of the College and each department for each semester in a book form. A copy of this book is to be submitted to the Managing Trustee before the start of the semester.

An academic audit for workload and timetable will be conducted by external experts at the end of each semester. The resulting report will be submitted to the management for all colleges in SKI

It is the responsibility of the Principal to follow the UGC norms for allotment of subject to various category of faculty and when the academic audit is conducted the College should submit all relevant documents to the auditors along with the number of hours handled.

Leave Rules

1. Casual Leave(CL)

- a. Calendar year means January to December. In a calendar year teaching and non-teaching staff members are entitled to avail a casual leave of 1 day per month subject to a maximum of 12 days per calendar year. However, CL cannot be claimed as a matter of right. Un-availed CL cannot be accumulated and transferred to next calendar year.
- b. Application for any leave must be submitted to the office after getting the signature of HOD and approval of the Principal in the prescribed format by mentioning the necessary alternate arrangements on the reverse side of the application form before the leave is actually availed.
- c. Under any unforeseen real emergency condition, oral permission has to be obtained from the respective dean and the dean can inform the Principal and HOD for intimation and permission. Absenting without proper intimation may lead to "Leave on loss of Pay".

Availing Leave on loss of pay will affect regular increment, promotion and vacation

2. On Duty (OD):

- a. Leave ON DUTY (OD) during regular working period will be granted to staff for official work only. The vacation period declared at the end of the odd and even semester in academic year will not be reckoned as a regular working period.
- b. The official work for the teaching faculty includes the following:
 - Attending conference/seminar/workshop/summer school/winter school and similar such programs approved by the management.
 - Attending central valuation/project/viva voce evaluation/Practical examination/External Examination/University representative of Parent University outside the college up to a maximum of 5 days in a semester excluding holidays.
- c. The member of the faculty who are pursuing part-time Ph.D. programs are eligible for half aday Leave ON DUTY during regular working period if needed.
- d. During an academic year a maximum of 15 days only can be availed as leave ON DUTY.
- e. The restriction on the maximum number of days vide clause 4(d), referred above is not applicable to officials of physical education, placement and training.
- f. Prior permission has to be taken from the Principal for ON DUTY leave. The member of the staff may not be permitted to avail leave ON DUTY by the Principal, if any academic work is pending or any other work has to be attended to, in the institution.
- g. Any other categories needing leave ON DUTY will be at the discretion of the principal. The decision of the Principal is final in all above cases. However, any deputation or work assigned by the management to the faculty will be treated as additional ON DUTY over and above the restrictions prescribed.

3. Medical/ Maternity leave

- a. If any staff is ill, he/ she can avail a medical leave and the limit will be decided upon case-to-case basis.
- b. Female teaching faculty are eligible to avail approved maternity leave, however the period of Maternity Leave (6 months) will be counted for service. At the time of re-joining also will have to get the approval from Management.

4. Vacation Leave (VL)

- a. The vacation period will be declared by the College. Regular Faculty members who have put in a minimum of 1 year of continuous service are eligible for vacation. No on duty leave will be given during the above-mentioned vacation period.
- b. No College holidays/ Sundays can be prefixed / suffixed to the vacation. The duration will be calculated from the starting day of vacation till the day of re-joining duty. If it is not possible to permit continuous vacation due to official work, it should be availed within the two spells approved by the principal.
- c. It is mandatory on the part of the staff member to report for duty after completion of their vacation leave. Failure to report without prior communication after the vacation period will result in severe action being taken. However, If the faculty is not able to report due to medical reasons or any acceptable reasons then the case may be treated for late joining after vacation as decided by management and Principal.
- d. Vacation leave cannot be combined with any other type of leave except OD. If any other type of leave combined with VL except OD then whole VL availed may be treated as LOP, including holidays / Sundays prefixed / suffixed.
- e. Members are requested to proceed on VL only after the Approval / Sanction from the Principal. Also, they are requested to submit the leave form with necessary alternate arrangements and contact address, phone no, email id. etc.
- f. Members of Staff having invigilation/examination duties during the vacation period it is mandatory to attend the duty without fail or make proper alternate arrangement with the permission from the Principal/COE.
- g. The staff handling the subject has to be present during the end semester examination date of the subject even if he/she is on vacation and is requested to scrutinize the question paper and submit a report to the principal on the same day. For common subjects / a subject is handled by more than one faculty, at least one faculty marked by HOD, should be available on that day for scrutinizing the Question paper and to submit the report.

Note: Depending on existing contingencies like pandemic, natural disasters and Government orders, the vacation period may be altered then and there. Any faculty who has been assigned with official work like admission, academic, examination, placement, training etc., during the vacation has to attend the work and they cannot refuse the work because they are on vacation. It is a professional working environment and any rejection to take up the responsibility will cause hardship to the institute and on the individual.
